Re: Brian Johnson vs. Peter Frei
Palmer District Court, Civil Action #: 1143CV293

Dear Peter,

Having spent the better of part of Sunday reviewing almost three (3) years of litigation records for accuracy, I am enclosing final invoices to settle up your account. After review, the previous estimate I gave you of $5,000 was low by $2,300.00. The total due is $7,300.00. Although I believe them to be spot on, as always, please double check them against your own records.

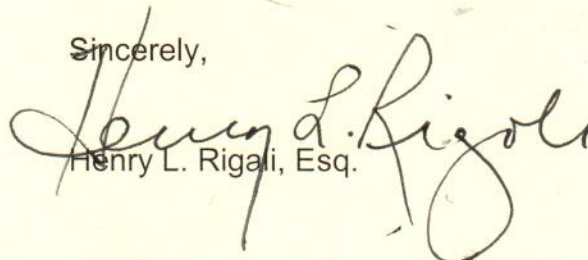

There are two invoices. The first covers from 8/18/2011 through 12/31/2013. There is a balance of $721.57 which reflects a few hours of work omitted from the old 12/13/2013 invoice we previously discussed.

The second invoice reflects time and expense from 1/1/2014 through the present. The balance due is $6590, hence the total of $7,300.00 ($7,311.57 to be exact). Both invoices reflect many hours for which "no charge" is being sought and there are many hours spent not reflected at all.

To date you have paid my office roughly $64,550. Upon payment of the remaining $7,300.00, you will have paid a total of $71,850.00. You are welcome to review the file in my office at any time.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service. No hard feelings, Peter, and best wishes for success in future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Henry L. Rigali, Esq.
